

WILL I MAKE A GOOD LASH ARTIST?

A reflective exercise to help you become the best you can be!

Do the reflective exercise below to see if you have what it takes to become a sought-after lash artist and what you may want to work on before starting your career.

DIRECTIONS: Download and print the worksheet. Check next to the characteristics on this list that describe you right now. Once you get your list, reflect upon it to see where you may want to improve before you start seeing clients.

Remember, we are all works in progress and recognizing your areas of opportunity is the first step to growth. :)

- I have EXCELLENT up-close eyesight.
- I have EXTREMELY steady heads.
- I am a "clean freak" and make sure my work area is extra sanitary.
- I prefer to give rather than receive.
- People tell me I am a very kind human being.
- If someone doesn't like my work, I don't take it personally because I see it as an opportunity for me to improve and grow.
- I love learning and plan to continue learning more about lash extensions after this course.
- I don't mind having shorter fingernails while I am learning how to apply eyelash extensions.
- I am often told by family and friends that I am a great communicator.
- I am physically in shape and can sit for hours leaning forward.
- I genuinely want to help people feel great!
- I would never gossip with a client about other clients or co-workers.
- I am an honest and reliable person.
- I am always on-time unless there was a huge emergency.
